

Minnie's Hope Social Pediatrics Centre

Presented to:

Partnering with Indigenous Communities to Develop and Evaluate Pediatric Rehabilitation Strategies: Pan-Canadian Perspectives

By: Marianne Martin and Johanne Morel

October 8, 2025

Marianne Martin, Director
Minnie's Hope Social Pediatrics
Centre
Whapmagoostui/Kuujuaraapik

Whapmagoostui-Kuujuaraapik

- northernmost Cree community
- southernmost Inuit community
- about 1000 Cree people
- about 800 Inuit people

Minnie's Hope Social Pediatric Centre

- Founded in 2014
- Holistic approach
- Complementary services to Health Boards
- Incorporated, nonprofit organization
- Cree, Inuit and non-Natives on the Board of Directors

Minnie's Hope's mission

- to help each child of the community achieve his/her potential regardless of their situation and any physical, developmental or social challenges they may be facing.

Meeting of the board

Social peds clinic

- Multidisciplinary with as core members:
 - - a social worker/human relations agent
 - - a person from the community
 - - a physician

INVITING ALL TO THE TABLE

Support services

- Paramedical
 - SLP
 - OT
 - Psychotherapy: verbal and non verbal (sand play, art...)
 - Nutrition
- Artistic
 - Music
 - Humanitarian clowns
 - Photography

Programs

- Head Start: play groups for children aged 2 to 5 years
- Ungaluk program: after school activities for children aged 7-12 years

Cultural base

Thank you!